WESTERN CAPE PROVINCIAL GEOGRAPHICAL NAMES COMMITTEE CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The geographical, language and cultural community of the Western Cape are hereby invited to nominate suitable persons to serve on the Western Cape Provincial Geographical Names Committee. The term of office for the committee is three years. Nominees must be South African citizens, at least 21 years of age and permanent residents of the Western Cape Province.

The Western Cape Provincial Geographical Names Committee (WCPGNC) is responsible to advise the South African Geographical Names Council (SAGNC) regarding matters pertaining to geographical names - including the standardisation, verification, transformation of, and changes to existing geographical names. Nominees must be knowledgeable or have specialised proficiency in the following areas:

- Geography / cartography
- Orthography (language spelling systems)
- Language and linguistics (proficiency in the three official languages of the Western Cape)
- Cultural Heritage, History and Tourism

Members serving on the WCPGNC do not receive salaries, but will receive meeting allowances. Members of the public who wish to nominate suitable individuals to serve on the WCPGNC must complete the prescribed nomination form with the following details:

- a) The nominee's full name, address, contact telephone number and email address
- b) A Curriculum Vitae of the nominee that validates his/her eligibility for appointment to the WCPGNC
- c) The names and contact details of the person/institution nominating the candidate

No nominations will be considered if all abovementioned information is not provided.

Nominations forms can be obtained from Anita van der Merwe at 021 483 9721

OR electronically from Anita.VanDerMerwe@westerncape.gov.za
