

Jabulani Miya

Biographical statement

Jabulani Mayi was born and raised with his other siblings in Gugulethu, though he occasionally stayed with his grandfather in Balfour, Mpumalanga. He attended Lehlonoholo Primary School in Gugulethu but did not pursue further education. Instead, he joined his father in working for a company that repaired arcade machines, which were popular at the time.

Jabulani fathered three children. His family continued to reside in Gugulethu.
