- S30(6) Draft Documents

RECOMMENDATION

The Committee recommends to Council:

1. That the 159 sites that have been identified as conservation worthy (Appendix 2) are formally protected through placement on the Heritage Register.
2. That the proposed Heritage Area mapped in Figure 7.8 is formally protected and the recommended Zoning Scheme provisions are implemented and adopted in the Cape Agulhas Municipality SDF (Table 7).

The Committee recommends to the Cape Agulhas Municipality:

3. The decision-making criteria (Section 7.5) and guidelines (Appendix 4) are adopted and implemented.
4. A heritage advisory committee is established for Napier
5. The identified opportunities for heritage celebration and placemaking are implemented by the Cape Agulhas Municipality (Section 8)
6. The committee recommends that the Municipality together with the proposed Heritage Advisory Committee for Napier continue with the iterative process of including and recognising the intangible and living heritage of Napier through further open public consultation. This process and its outcomes should be iteratively included in the Napier Heritage Inventory in a manner that reflects and promotes the conservation of the significance of these heritage resources.
